We're Trying Something Different

We love the informality and camaraderie of our weekends at earthdog tests and can think of no better way to spend our time. But we also know that attending an earthdog test can be a major commitment of time. In the interests of accommodating busy exhibitors, we would like to try something approaching a "Show-and-Go" atmosphere to see if it would be helpful for folks who love earthdog like we do but may not be able to commit entire days or weekends to one event.

Toward that end, we're going to skip the traditional formal lunch break with potluck and encourage folks to pack a lunch so they can eat when it's convenient for them. We will of course provide coffee and beverages throughout the day. We'll make every effort to get ribbons awarded following each class so that if that if you're done for the day you can be on your way with your prize promptly.

Sticking Around?

Great! After the event we'll be offering training tips, test strategies, troubleshooting ideas and other helpful discussion and advice to help you and your dog make the most of your earthdogging experience.

Thanks - and good luck!

We hope that you find this style of test to be an interesting alternative. We also hope that you'll join us on other weekends for practice days, clinics, and fun days. We believe our goal is the same as your goal: fun with our dogs!

Thank you for supporting CRCTC and good luck!
